“Educating, Motivating and Inspiring Women”

November 15, 2013

Dear Friend(s):

In celebration of Women's History Month, the Los Angeles County Commission for Women and the Board of Supervisors will proudly honor women of the community for their exceptional work in women's rights at the 29th Annual Women of the Year Awards Scholarship Luncheon to be held on Monday, March 10, 2014.

Event proceeds provide funding to promote vital outreach throughout Los Angeles County in fulfilling the Commission's goals of “Educating, Motivating and Inspiring Women”, as well as, to fund critical education scholarships to assist low income, at-risk young women determined to continue their education.

Below lists the Criteria for Nominees:

- Your nominee must have worked on behalf of women's issues; advocated on behalf of women's rights; made significant contributions to women's equality issues, or served as a role model for women within the following categories: Education, Health, Art/Media, Business/Labor, Law/Public Safety.
- Previous members of the Commission may be nominated for their current professions and other activities relating to advocacy for women.
- Previous recipients are not eligible for this award. (See website at www.laccw.info for past awardees).

We welcome your nominations of phenomenal individuals whose accomplishments meet the established eligibility criteria.

Please complete the enclosed nomination application or visit our website at www.laccw.info and return the completed form, along with a brief biography of your nominee to:
